

Thomas J. Beane of Wilmington, the president of Beane Associates Inc., has been elected treasurer of the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association. He will serve a two-year term. Beane held management positions with AT&T and NCR before joining Beane Associates in 1993. He has been president of the management consulting business since 1998. The Turnaround Management Association is a nonprofit dedicated to corporate renewal and turnaround management.